Inspiration: fruit's natural taste and color blended with the unique texture of cocoa butter

AN EXCLUSIVE VALRHONA CREATION

Valrhona has been putting all its expertise into the selection and transformation of cacao since 1922, to offer gastronomy professionals with a wide aromatic palette of chocolate couvertures. Thanks to this savoir-faire, and after several years of research, Valrhona developed the Inspiration range in 2016. A range of fruit couvertures that combine the unique texture of cocoa butter with the intense taste and color of fruit. The recipes are entirely made up of natural ingredients, without adding any artificial color or aroma.

Five years of work, in collaboration with top chefs, were necessary to perfect the recipe, based on a blend of cocoa butter, sugar and fruit. While it may have a simple composition, Inspiration represents real technical prowess.

Indeed, chocolate does not like water, and at each step in chocolate's fabrication process, the aim is to reduce the humidity found in the cacao beans. As for cocoa butter, or any fatty product, it is difficult to mix it with water. And since most fruit contains a high percentage of water, creating a blend of fruit, chocolate and cocoa butter is a true challenge.

Thanks to Valrhona's chocolate expertise, Inspiration rises to the challenge of combining chocolate couverture's unique texture with the intense color and taste of fruit. Top chefs recognize this ability, and have found in Inspiration a product that tests the limits of their creativity. In 2021, amateur pastry fans can now let their imagination run wild, too.

The pure color and taste of fruit

The most gourmet amateurs will undoubtedly be unable to resist the temptation to bite into an Inspiration bean, even if it's meant to be a part of a tasteful pastry dessert... They'll be surprised by how intense the taste of the fruit is. The sensory experience is unique.

Presented in the shape of beans, like the majority of Valrhona's chocolate couverture, Inspiration fruit couverture is prepared using premium quality fresh fruit, and contains no artificial colors, preservatives or perfumes. Inspiration's color and taste are completely natural in origin.

A new source of inspiration

Just like professionals, amateur pastry chefs can now create intensely fruity desserts and bring a new dimension to their creations! Crafted into a ganache, foam, cream, ice cream or other type of dessert, Inspiration opens at least as many possibilities as chocolate, that are all just as gourmet. Creations that are worthy of the best chefs!

Yuzu & Raspberry

TWO NEW GOURMET SUMMER FLAVORS FOR GOURMET TASTES

Pastry professional favorites, these two fruity flavors are also among those most appreciated by consumers. Yuzu is pastry chef's star fruit, and raspberry is a great pastry classic. They bring a fresh note and a flash of color to summer desserts.

Yuzu Inspiration - Tangy and fresh fruit

A subtle treasure in the great citrus family, yuzu is one of Asian gastronomy's classic ingredients. Even if this small golden yellow fruit has found an upscale home on the menu of the greatest restaurants and in the window of the best pastry shops, it still has an exotically perfumed air about it. Yuzu Inspiration fruit couverture from Valrhona exalts the tangy and fresh taste in all its intensity. Amateur pastry chefs finally have the chance to work with this rare fruit in a pure and simple manner.

Aromatic qualities: Yuzu bursts onto the palate with a unique citrusy taste, which gives way to fresh fruit flavors. Yuzu Inspiration reveals the aromatic richness of a citrus fruit mix including grapefruit, mandarin and lime.

Perfect match : Sweet tanginess is enhanced by a hint of bitterness, which bring out the best in other ingredients that Yuzu Inspiration is paired with. It shares a special affinity with dark chocolate, coconut and aromatic herbs.

Fruit selection: The yuzus chosen by Valrhona are almost all farmed in tiny smallholdings found halfway up mountains in south-east Japan's rural Kochi region. They grow in small quantities and have outstanding taste, coming as they do from a terroir that boasts a citrus-friendly climate and a yuzu variety that is rustic and natural.

Raspberry Inspiration - Candied and gourmet flavor

The queen of berries, raspberry is one of pastry's iconic fruits, its delicate balance of sweet and tart flavors making it stand out. Valrhona's Raspberry Inspiration fruit couverture expresses all the intensity of raspberry's unique flavor, as well as its natural vibrant pink color. It's the perfect opportunity for enthusiasts to easily prepare this fruit that is so fragile and enjoyed in all seasons.

Aromatic qualities: Warm notes of raspberry jelly give way to the tart flourish that characterizes this fruit.

Perfect match : The truly gourmet flavor works divinely in recipes that include wafer biscuits.

Fruit selection: The raspberry fruit originally comes from mountainous areas of Europe and Asia. Often harvested on a small scale, it needs to be carefully looked after if it is able to grow.

Inspiration: a range of 4 flavors to bake pastry like a chef

Created by Valrhona's Research & Development teams in collaboration with professionals and L'Ecole Valrhona chefs, the Inspiration range's four flavors open up infinite creative perspectives for artisans of taste and amateur pastry makers alike.

Strawberry and Passionfruit Inspirations, the first two Valrhona fruit couvertures, have also been available for gourmets since March 2020:

Strawberry Inspiration - Candied and tangy

The symbol of spring, strawberries have a unique sweet and subtly tangy flavor. An essential ingredient in desserts, they please everyone: from desserts to ice cream, cakes and pies. Strawberry Inspiration illuminates all of the strawberry's gourmet aromas in an intense red couverture that is easy to work with.

Perfect match: The strawberry taste matches perfectly with other fruits such as coconut and lemon, as well as orange flower, nougat, verbena and white jasmine tea aromas. Among spices, it can be matched with anise, fresh coriander, vanilla and mint.

Passionfruit Inspiration - Exotic and tangy

Sweet, gourmet and with a touch of tang, passionfruit brings to mind the sun and tropical countries that it comes from. Its unique and subtle taste adds a dash of sunshine to summer desserts. Passionfruit Inspiration makes this rare flavor that can be difficult to work with available to all.

Perfect match:

Passionfruit can very easily be matched with other exotic fruits, such as papaya, kiwi and pineapple, as well as hazelnuts and pecan nuts. Milk chocolate, almond paste and praline emphasize its gourmet side. A dash of Sichuan pepper, vanilla or saffron magnifies it beautifully.

TIME TO GET INSPIRED!

The chefs at L'Ecole Valrhona created three fruity recipes for amateur pastry chefs where they can use Inspiration and discover new gourmet sensations: a vanilla raspberry pie, a yuzu cake, and yuzu macarons with a cocoa shell or white shell.
